Bagless Day – 3 organised by Blue House

On the 14th of September, 2024, the Blue House organized another vibrant and engaging Bagless Day. The day was thoughtfully divided into two segments. In the morning session, students from classes I to V, there was a Poetry Recitation Competition, students from classes VI to XII were introduced to the rich diversity of Indian classical and folk dance forms, as well as various Western dance styles. The session also featured interactive activities centered around dance, making it both informative and enjoyable.

In the afternoon, the younger students from classes VI to VIII were treated to Movie Time, where they watched Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, while the senior students from classes IX to XII indulged in friendly matches of Table Tennis and Basketball. The entire day was filled with energy, creativity, and fun, making it a truly memorable experience for all the students of St. Aloysius.
