

Grandparents Day Celebration 2024

On 07th September, 2024, St. Aloysius' Orphanage and Day School organized a special event to celebrate Grandparents Day. This heart-warming occasion was dedicated to honouring the love, wisdom, and guidance that grandparents bring into the lives of their grandchildren. The event was attended by grandparents of students from classes 1- V, making it a memorable day for both students and their families.

The celebration began with a warm welcome by the school Principal Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes, who spoke about the important role grandparents play in the lives of their grandchildren. The principal expressed gratitude for their continuous support and influence in shaping the younger generation.

Event Highlights:

1. Cultural Program: Students had prepared a delightful cultural program, showcasing their talents in singing, dancing. The performances were based on themes of family, love, and tradition.
2. Interactive Activities*: After the cultural performances, grandparents were invited to participate in various fun and engaging activities with their grandchildren. There were games like "Bombing the city" and "Passing the Pillow" .
3. Grandparents' Speech*: Several grandparents were given the opportunity to speak, and they shared heart-warming words of advice, stories from their youth, and their hopes for their grandchildren's futures. These speeches filled the room with nostalgia and appreciation for family bonds.
4. Photo Session and Refreshments*: The event concluded with a group photo session, capturing the joyous moments shared by grandparents and their grandchildren. Refreshments were served, allowing everyone to interact and bond over a pleasant conversation.

On Saturday, September 7, 2024, St. Aloysius' Orphanage and Day School hosted a heartfelt Grandparents Day celebration, honouring the cherished grandparents of students from classes 6 to 12. The event commenced at 11:30 a.m. in the school hall with the traditional lighting of the ceremonial lamp, followed by a moving prayer service.

To make this day truly special for the grandparents, the students had prepared an engaging cultural program. Highlights of the celebration included a poignant PowerPoint presentation, delightful musical medleys, vibrant dance performances, and expressive poem recitations. Each performance was a reflection of the deep love and gratitude the students hold for their grandparents.

Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes, the school principal, expressed his sincere appreciation to all the grandparents in attendance. He acknowledged their invaluable role in shaping the lives of the students and emphasized the profound impact of their presence and support.

The event was a resounding success, leaving lasting memories and reinforcing the special bond between students and their beloved grandparents.
