

Investiture Ceremony 2024

St. Aloysius Orphanage and Day School hosted its annual Investiture Ceremony on 17th May 2024, under the guidance of Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes, the principal. The Chief Guest of the event was Sir P.C.Daniels, Principal of St. Thomas Church School, Howrah. Other notable attendees included Rev. Fr. Moloy D'Costa, the School's secretary, and Br. Ujjwal Murmu.

The ceremony began with a divine invocation, featuring lighting of the ceremonial lamp, prayers and offertory gifts, creating a solemn atmosphere. The Chief Guest and the other dignitaries were felicitated by Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes and the teachers. The new school cabinet was then formally invested with badges and sashes, symbolizing their new roles and responsibilities.

A pivotal moment was the oath-taking ceremony, where the new leaders pledged their commitment with pride. Following this, the School Captain delivered a speech to the gathering, reflecting on the importance of their new roles.

Encouraging words from Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes, Rev. Fr. Moloy D'Costa, and Sir P.C. Daniels motivated the newly invested leaders. Their speeches emphasized leadership, responsibility, and dedication to the school community.

The ceremony concluded with the singing of the school anthem, marking the end of a significant and inspiring event. The Investiture Ceremony celebrated the new leaders and reinforced the core values of St. Aloysius Orphanage and Day School.
