

Report on Special Assembly conducted by Class IX Commerce

Class IX Commerce had the privilege of conducting a special assembly on the Feast of St. John Mary Vianney. The event was designed to honor the patron saint of parish priests and to inspire students to imbibe his values in their own lives. The assembly commenced with a solemn prayer, setting a reverent tone for the occasion. This was followed by a hymn sung in English, Bengali, and Hindi, showcasing the linguistic diversity of the school and uniting everyone in a shared spiritual experience. A detailed PowerPoint presentation highlighted significant moments in the life of St. John Vianney. The presentation provided insights into his early challenges, his unwavering dedication to his parish, and his lasting impact on the Church, making his story accessible and relatable to the students. A student recited the poem "The Pastor's Heart," which eloquently captured the essence of St. John Vianney's pastoral dedication and spiritual guidance. A short skit titled "The Boxes of Emotions" was presented by the students, depicting the importance of imbibing valuable virtues in life. The skit creatively explored how emotions influence our actions and the necessity of cultivating virtues such as kindness, patience, and humility, reflecting the teachings of St. John Vianney. A short video was projected next, expressing the students' gratitude and love towards the navigators of the Aloysian ship, Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes and Rev. Fr. Moloy D'Costa. The video was a heartfelt tribute to their guidance and support, tying the assembly's theme to the broader school community. In his speech, Rev. Fr. Devraj Fernandes highlighted the importance of following in the footsteps of St. John Vianney in our lives. He spoke about the relevance of Vianney's virtues in today's world and encouraged students to aspire to live with the same faith, dedication, and compassion. The assembly concluded on a lively note with an action dance performed by all the students of Class IX Commerce. The dance was vibrant and energetic, symbolizing the joy and unity of the school community in celebrating the Feast of St. John Mary Vianney.

St John Marie Vianney Happy Feast Day Celebration 2024

St John Marie Vianney Happy Feast Day Celebration 2024